Notes to Financial Statements

8. Financial Instruments with Off-Balance Sheet Risk

In the normal course of business, the Partnership executes, as agent, transactions on behalf of customers. If the agency transactions do not settle because of failure to perform by either the customer or the counterparty, the Partnership may be obligated to discharge the obligation of the nonperforming party and, as a result, may incur a loss if the market value of the securities is different from the contract amount of the transactions. In the normal course of business, the Partnership deposits with lending institutions, securities it owns and securities owned by others which it holds, as collateral for its borrowings. Additionally, the Partnership loans, to brokers and dealers, securities and receives cash or other collateral. If a lending institution or broker or dealer does not return the securities, the Partnership may be obligated to purchase the securities in order to return them. In such circumstances, the Partnership may incur a loss equal to the amount by which the market value of the securities on the date of nonperformance exceeds the amount of the loan from the institution or the collateral from the broker or dealer.

The Partnership does not anticipate nonperformance by customers or counterparties in the above situations. The Partnership's policy is to monitor its market exposure and counterparty risk. In addition, the Partnership has a policy of reviewing, as considered necessary, the credit standing of each counterparty and customer with which it conducts business.

At December 31, 2004, cash totaling $6,201,277 is deposited with a financial institution that is affiliated by common control. The amount on deposit exceeded the federally insured limit. Such balance was reduced to $2,701,277 on January 4, 2005. Additionally, at December 31, 2004 the Partnership has $16,680,993 deposited with a major international bank.

2008	370
2009	379
Later years	2,182
	$ 3,877

The office space rental agreement contains renewal options and escalation clauses.

The Partnership has an arrangement with its clearing bank which, among other things, provides a line of credit collateralized by securities, and bears interest at floating rates. At December 31, 2004, the Partnership has no borrowings under this arrangement.

The Partnership has a non-contributory profit sharing plan covering substantially all employees who meet specific age and service requirements. The profit sharing plan provides for annual contributions at the discretion of the partners that may not exceed the greater of $41,000 or 25 percent of eligible employee compensation.

Notes to Financial Statements

10. Regulatory
Net Capital Requirements

Pursuant to the Uniform Net Capital Rule of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and CFTC Rule 1.17, the Partnership is required to maintain minimum net capital, as defined. The Partnership has elected to use the alternative method permitted by the rules in computing minimum net capital. Such method requires that the Partnership maintain minimum net capital equal to the greater of $250,000 or two percent of aggregate debit balances arising from customer transactions. The Partnership is required to notify its governing regulatory agencies if net capital falls below $375,000. Net capital may fluctuate on a daily basis. At December 31, 2004, the Partnership's net capital and net capital requirement are $10,700,199 and $250,000, respectively.

11. Tax Examination

In July 2004, Associates, as tax matters partner of the Partnership, entered into a closing agreement with the Internal Revenue Service regarding certain proposed adjustments to the Partnership's tax returns for the years 1997 through 1999. The agreement had no effect on the Partnership and closed all open tax examinations.

Independent Auditors' Report
on Internal Control
Required by SEC Rule 17a-5
and CFTC Regulation 1.16

To the Partners
AVM, L.P.
West Palm Beach, Florida

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements of AVM, L.P. (the "Partnership") for the year ended December 31, 2004, we considered its internal control, including control activities for safeguarding securities, in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on internal control.

Also, as required by Rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and by Regulation 1.16 of the Commodity Futures Trading Commission ("CFTC"), we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Partnership, including tests of compliance with such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in Rule 17a-5(g) in the following: (1) making the periodic computations of aggregate debits and net capital under Rule 17a-3(a)(11) and the reserve required by Rule 15c3-3(e) and the minimum financial requirements pursuant to Regulation 1.17; (2) in making the quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications and comparisons, and the recordation of differences required by Rule 17a-13; (3) in complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System; and (4) in obtaining and maintaining physical possession or control of all fully paid and excess margin securities of customers as required by Rule 15c3-3. We did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Partnership in making the daily computations of the segregation requirements of section 4d(2) of the Commodity Exchange Act and the regulations thereunder, and the segregation of funds based on such computations or the daily computations of the foreign futures and foreign options secured amount requirements pursuant to Regulation 30.7 of the CFTC because the Partnership does not carry customer commodity accounts.

The management of the Partnership is responsible for establishing and maintaining an internal control structure and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgements by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of controls, and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph, and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable but not absolute assurance that assets for which the Partnership has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition, and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5(g) and Regulation 1.16 list additional objectives of these practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Independent Auditors' Report
on Internal Control
Required by SEC Rule 17a-5

Because of inherent limitations in internal control on the practices and procedures referred to above, error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate. Our consideration of internal control would not necessarily disclose all matters in internal control that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of the specific internal control components does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that error or fraud in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. However, we noted no matters involving internal control, including control activities for safeguarding securities, that we consider to be material weaknesses as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and are considered adequate by the CFTC for its purposes in accordance with the Commodity Exchange Act and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Partnership's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2004, to meet the SEC's and the CFTC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the use of management, the Commodity Futures Trading Commission, the National Futures Association, the Securities and Exchange Commission, the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc., and other regulatory agencies which rely on Rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
